Excerpt of pertinent information :

SO-35854—Under date of 24 December 1949, General Constantin-Petre-Lazar, aide to King Mihai, informed General Nicolae Radescu, President of the Rumanian National Committee, that the King had refused Radescu's request that Vintila Bratianu, a member of the National Liberal Party, be made a member of the Rumanian Committee. King Mihai based his refusal to grant such permission on the ground that the decision of the Rumanian National Committee to coopt Bratianu was not in accordance with the terms of the Statute of the National Committee.

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
